Hugh Lecky (left) leads the overall Shippen Cup. Rod LeBrew wins the Quail Brook event

This was the Ball Striker's second visit to Quail Brook. With pretty heavy rains in the days preceding the event, the threat of "cart path only" was real. However, the course handled the rain beautifully and the event proceeded with no restrictions. The course was in great condition and Quail Brook associates were courteous and helpful. The day was "not too". Not too hot; not too cool; not too windy. AKA a great day for golf.

Ball Striker, Rod LeBrew took full advantage of the

"not too" day. He shot a steady net 69 to shade Hugh Lecky by one shot for event honors in Shippen Cup stroke play. Keith Kirkland finished third with a net 71. LeBrew won his four ball match with partner Derrick Bethune and Lecky partnered with Tony Jenkins to win their four ball match.

Eli White and Anthony Darby both shot net 73 to score T3's in stroke play.

Other match winners at Quail Brook were the teams of Mel LuSane/Errol Blake, Earl Fraser/

Greg Whitaker, Anthony Darby/Eli White and Brad Leak/Maurice Brown. Ed Cosby won his individual "odd man" match.

With strong performances in the first two 2018 Shippen Cup events, Hugh Lecky and Rod LeBrew moved into first and second place respectively in the overall Shippen Cup standings.

Top grossers at Quail Brook were Tony Jenkins (85), Rod LeBrew (86), Hugh Lecky (87), Brad Leak (87) and Keith Kirkland (87).
