Keith Kirkland (left) and Hugh Lecky played to a first place tie at Galloping Hill

There are many reasons why Galloping Hill always draws a large field of golfers for Shippen Cup events. It's challenging, it's picturesque, it has tremendous practice facilities, it has a very nice 19th hole and it's a short drive. But the cherry on top for this year's Galloping event is it's a dress rehearsal for club championship weekend which will take place in a month at guess where; Galloping Hill. A good performance here and now gives confidence for a repeat good performance CC weekend and makes a statement to the field that you are a force to be reckoned with.

Keith Kirkland and Hugh

Lecky shared the Galloping Hill event Shippen Cup title. Both shot net 66 and both won their four ball matches. Lecky with partner Mike Conrad and Kirkland with partner Marlon Matthews. Not only did Lecky and Kirkland top the field in net stroke play, but they also placed in the top five in gross stroke play. So these two warrant respect as contenders for gross and net titles come club championship weekend. But, make no mistake, it's one thing to top the field in a one round event and quite another to top the field for two rounds on consecutive days. And speaking of topping the field for two rounds on consecutive days, reigning club champion, Tony Jenkins and former club champ, Brad Leak finished one-two in gross stroke play at Galloping and must be considered favorites in this season's club champ competition.

In the overall Shippen Cup competition there were no changes in the top three positions. Errol Blake held on to his lead followed by Mel Knight in second and Mike Conrad in third. The club's hottest golfer, Keith Kirkland, moved up into a third place tie with Conrad. Walter Frye, who sat out the Galloping event, dropped from T3 to fifth place but remains a threat. The bottom line is nothing will be decided before CC weekend. Stay tuned.
