This event at Pebble Creek was a first for the Ball Strikers, but definitely not the last. Pebble featured a well kept tract with several holes that presented some risk/reward options; especially if you are a big hitter. All this was wrapped in a family type atmosphere with an exceptionally friendly and helpful staff.

There were four Ball Strikers at the top of the Pebble Creek event leaderboard that had breakout performances; Eli White, Burnell Williams, Anthony Darby and Joseph Holloway.

Eli White won the Pebble Creek event on the strength of winning the stroke play competition and partnering with Greg Whitaker to tie their four ball match. He shot a net 61 to win the stroke play event by 2 strokes over Burnell Williams. Eli is no stranger to winning events, having won the 2015 Shippen Cup title by over 80 points. But Eli's win at Pebble Creek had a different flavor than his past victories where he primarily took advantage of his handicap to outscore the field. At Pebble Eli spanked the field by net score, as well as, gross score. Is this a portend of things to come, or just a bump in the road?

Anthony Darby is the most recent poster child for what can happen when you constructively work on your game and your confidence. Darby, who's handicap has been as high as 22, had a magical season in 2020 when he won the Shippen Cup title. He has since pushed his handicap down to the mid to low teens and is a contender at every event.

Burnell Williams and Joseph Holloway are charter members of the club's old guard. Burnell has always been a dangerous opponent. He is a double danger now that he is back to playing on a regular basis. Most members know that when you are matched against Burnie you need to bring your "A" game.

Joseph Holloway had a truly breakout performance at Pebble. According to Joseph, "Everything was working that day." He is a good example of how moving to the forward tees can make your playing experience more enjoyable and your game more competitive. A move that is overdue for some of our other old guard members.
