Riverview is absolutely one of my favorites on the Ball Striker schedule. It's not so much that I always play well there, though I have had some breakout rounds, but more that I really enjoy the course. Maybe it's because I have played so many rounds there that I remember every hole and look forward to playing them. Not that the holes are easy enjoyable, but more interesting enjoyable. Like #9 where you need to choose your tee off club carefully because being too strong off the tee puts you in big trouble; or #12, the course's signature hole and very difficult par 3; and then there's #13, the par 5 where I've recorded my share of double figure scores.

Riverview must be one of Tony Jenkins' favorites also. At this Shippen Cup major event he played the course like he owned it. Jenkins shot net 69 to win the stroke play event and won his individual match racking up 80 Shippen Cup points.

Mel Knight placed second in stroke play one stroke behind the leader. Zack Yamba and Maurice Brown scored T3 at net 71. Ray Woolfolk rounded out the top five in stroke play shooting net 72. Knight, Yamba, Brown and Woolfolk all won their individual matches.

So reigning club champ, Tony Jenkins, is putting everyone on notice that, not only will he be the favorite to win the club championship for the third consecutive year, but he is also the man to beat for the 2022 Shippen Cup title. The are numerous Strikers in a position to stop the Jenkins machine but they will have to show up with their "A" games on the second weekend in September.

Up coming events: Please note that the Mercer Oaks event scheduled for August 27 has been cancelled. Ball strikers Walter McNeil and Derrick Bethune will host an event at Rossmoor Golf Club on that date. Due to limited participation, this will not be a Shippen Cup event.

After that the Ball Striker season's competition will conclude with Club Championship weekend on September 10 and 11 at The Architects'.

Due to event cancellations, Covid effects and the unusually hot weather over the this season the executive committee has decided to lower the minimum number of events a member must participate in over the 2022 season to qualify for the club champ competition to four. So if you participated in four events you qualify for the club champ competition (2022 season only).
