Strikers tie NYBC as the sun sets on '22 season

Normally Club Championship weekend marks the end of the Ball Striker season, but club president, Mike Conrad, put together a late season club match with the New York Birdie Club (NYBC). Eighteen Ball Strikers answered the bell for what turned out to be a very competitive club match.

Derrick Bethune and Walter McNeil were instrumental in securing Rossmoor as the venue for the event. Derrick and Mike Conrad shouldered the bulk of the organizational effort on the Ball Striker side. NYBC president, Derrick Michael, did most of the heavy lifting for the New York club. Considering the limited time available to prepare for the event, all of the organizers deserve a pat on the back for a job well done. Mother Nature also deserves a pat on the back for providing an unseasonably pleasant early November golf day.

This was our first competition with the NYBC and based on the fun and fellowship experienced at the event it will not be our last. In addition to being a group of fun loving gentlemen the NYBC boasted a formidable group of skilled golfers. Their lineup for the match included five golfers with single digit handicaps.

The format for the competition was handicapped individual match play. One point was awarded for each match win. Ties earned one half point for each golfer.

NYBC's number one golfer, Norman Young, won the first match followed by four Ball Striker match wins by Brad Leak, Keith Davenport, Maurice Brown and Greg Ward. Terry Jackson and Craig Jones from NYBC won the next two matches to bring NYBC to within one point at 4-3. Then in the next match George Thomas dropped a 30+ foot putt on the last hole to tie his match with NYBC's Mark Williams. Then match wins by NYBC's James Gant and Charles Wilson tied the club match at that point at 10.5-10.5.

Zack Yamba tied his match with NYBC's Reggie Smith by winning the 17th hole and halving 18. The remaining six matches were split with Ball Striker wins by Walter Frye, Hamlet Goore and Keith Kirkland and NYBC wins by Ron Miller, Steve Jenvy and Derrick Micheal. So the final tally was Ball Strikers 9 points and NYBC 9 points. A fitting way to end the first Ball Striker\New York Birdie Club competition.
