Jenkin's jackhammers blowout Brown's bombers in Ryder Cup

The Ryder Cup event using the Pinehurst (Chapman) system as the competition format is new to the Ball Strikers. We have tried the Pinehurst system before with poor results due to a lack of participant "buy in". So, Ball Striker president, Mike Conrad, is to be commended for pushing the Ryder Cup/Pinehurst system event. Adding a high tech slant to the event, Ball Striker secretary, Anthony Darby, employed AI (artificial intelligence) to select the groups and matches.

In addition to the new competition format, the Strikers were playing Hominy Hill for the first time. The course was well kept with true rolling greens and wide open fairways. On the long side, this venue definitely favors the longer hitters.

Tony Jenkins' team won the Ryder cup competition by a lopsided 12 to 6 score. Maurice Brown's team took a 5.5 to 0.5 lead after the first two matches, but could only muster 1/2 point in the last four matches. All members of Jenkins' team were awarded 20 Shippen Cup points. In addition, each match win earned 10 points for each of the two members of the winning team.

The top five teams in net stroke play competition also earned extra points.

There was a three-way tie for first place in this competition. The teams of Sebastian Sepulveda/Keith Davenport, Hugh Lecky/Terry Carothers and Bruce Arthur/Tony Jenkins scored T1 at net 69. Burnell Williams/Greg Cavanaugh held down fourth place with a net 71 and the teams of Greg Ward/DeLano Bonner and Joe McLaughlin/Anthony Darby scored T5 at net 72.

DeLano Bonner continues to dominate the overall Shippen Cup competition. He boasts a 39 point lead over Bruce Arthur in second place. Tony Jenkins, Greg Cavanaugh and Sebastian Sepulveda round out the top five. Can anyone run down Bonner? Stay tuned.

Hominy Hill Event

Two Ryder Cup teams (A & B) will be formed from the participants of this event. Each team will have a captain. Team A will be captained by the current net club champ (Maurice Brown). Team B will be captained by the current gross club champ (Tony Jenkins). Each Ryder Cup team will be split into two player groups that will compete for that team in the specified competition format. The competition will be handicapped.

Ryder Cup Competition Format – Pinehurst (Chapman) System - Handicapped

- Two-person teams, one score per team
- Nassau Match Play. 1 point for winning the front nine, 1 point for winning the back nine, 1 point for winning all 18. For ties each team gets ½ point.
- Each player on the Ryder Cup team that wins the most points gets 20 Shippen Cup points.

Shippen Cup points

- Each player on a team that wins their all 18 match will get 10 Shippen Cup points.

Net score vs the field. Each team member will get Shippen Cup points as follows: 1st place 30 points, 2nd place 20 points, 3rd place 15 points, 4th place 10 points, 5th place 10 points. All others get 5 points
