.Medina Claims Gross, Knight Captures Net, and the Knicks End 53 Years of Heartbreak in San Antonio

Twenty-eight NJ Ball Strikers assembled at Fox Hollow Golf Club on a beautiful Saturday afternoon in Branchburg, New Jersey, with the first group teeing off promptly at 12:00 PM. A longtime staple of the club schedule, Fox Hollow once again delivered the perfect setting for a day of competition, fellowship, and memorable moments.

The course was in outstanding condition, temperatures were ideal, and scoring opportunities were plentiful. As players gathered on the practice green and around the clubhouse before the round, few could have imagined that by the end of the evening they would not only be discussing birdies, Shippen Cup points, and leaderboard movement, but also celebrating one of the most historic moments in New York sports history.

Gross Competition

The Gross competition produced several impressive performances, led by Perry Medina, who continued his strong 2026 campaign with a tournament-best 82 (+12). Medina's consistent ball striking and steady play throughout the round allowed him to separate himself from the field and secure top honors.

A three-way tie for second place featured DeLano Bonner, Melvin Knight, and Zack Yamba, each posting rounds of 85 (+15). The trio remained in contention throughout the afternoon and demonstrated the depth of talent currently competing within the club.

Rounding out the top five was Tony Jenkins, whose 87 (+17) was good enough for fifth place.

Top 5 Gross Finishers

- 🏆 DeLano Bonner - 85
- 🏆 Melvin Knight - 85
- 🏆 Zack Yamba - 85
- 🏆 Tony Jenkins - 87

Shippen Cup (Net) Competition

While Medina captured Gross honors, the day's most significant movement in the Shippen Cup race came from Melvin Knight.

Knight paired his outstanding gross round with the lowest net score of the day, firing a Net 72 to claim top Shippen Cup honors. His performance earned the maximum stroke-play allocation and vaulted him up the season standings.

Anthony Darby and Zack Yamba both finished one stroke behind at Net 73, while Michael Conrad and Gregory Cavanaugh each carded Net 74s to round out the top five.

A Historic Evening

What none of us knew as we arrived at Fox Hollow was that history would unfold later that evening more than 1,500 miles away in San Antonio, Texas.

After the round, several NJ Ball Strikers gathered at Capital Craft in Green Brook to enjoy some pregame fellowship before making their way back to Union to watch Game 5 of the NBA Finals.

Playing on the road, the New York Knicks entered the evening with an opportunity to capture the franchise's first NBA Championship in 53 years. What followed was a performance for the ages.

Led by captain Jalen Brunson, who scored 45 of New York's 94 points, the Knicks defeated San Antonio on its home floor to clinch the championship and complete a gentleman's sweep of the series. Brunson's late-game heroics delivered the title and capped one of the most dominant playoff runs in franchise history.

Over a remarkable ten-week stretch, New York posted a 16-3 playoff record while defeating Atlanta, Cleveland, Philadelphia, and San Antonio en route to the Larry O'Brien Trophy.

For many club members, Fox Hollow instantly became about more than golf. It became forever linked to a day that perfectly captured what makes the NJ Ball Strikers special: friendly competition, lasting fellowship, and shared memories.

As scorecards were finalized and Shippen Cup standings updated, the celebration shifted from Branchburg to San Antonio. By night's end, members had enjoyed a fantastic day on one of the club's favorite courses and witnessed a championship decades in the making.

Some tournament days are remembered for the scores.

Others are remembered for the stories.

Fox Hollow 2026 gave us both.

More Than A Game. It's The Ball Strikers Way.
