43 Days Later: The Ball Strikers Settle the Score
Two Courses. Six Weeks. Three Champions. One Unforgettable Finish.
2026 NJ Ball Strikers Club Championship
Neshanic Valley — September 12 | High Bridge Hills — October 25, 2026

Unfinished Business

Some championships are decided over a weekend. Others require a little more patience. And then there's the 2026 NJ Ball Strikers Club Championship. What began on a beautiful September Saturday at Neshanic Valley finally concluded 43 days later, on October 25 at High Bridge Hills.

Forty-three days. Enough time for the seasons to change, golf swings to develop a few new habits, and some players to start thinking about putting their clubs away for the winter. But the Ball Strikers had unfinished business. And while the championship leaderboard remained frozen, the golf—and the camaraderie—continued well beyond New Jersey. When the final putts eventually dropped, three names stood above the rest:

Tony Jenkins — Gross Club Champion
Hugh Lecky — Net Club Champion
Zack Yamba — Shippen Cup Champion

Three champions. Three different journeys. One memorable finish.

From September Sunshine to October Championship Golf

Twenty-seven golfers answered the call for Round One at Neshanic Valley on September 12. The weather was ideal: sunshine, temperatures in the low 80s, and a course offering opportunities for anyone willing to take advantage.

Twenty-five golfers were eligible for Club Championship honors, having satisfied the requirement to participate in at least 50% of regular-season events. Gross Championship eligibility also required playing from the designated regular tees. The championship was scheduled as a traditional 36-hole, two-day competition.

Then the rain arrived. Sunday's second round was washed out. An October 11 conclusion was subsequently rescheduled, and the championship finally resumed on October 25 at High Bridge Hills. What should have been an overnight turnaround became a six-week test of patience, preparation, and momentum.

Some golfers kept playing and practicing. Others may have begun winding down their seasons. Those who struggled at Neshanic had time to regroup, while those who played well faced the challenge of maintaining their form. Did the delay change the outcome? We'll never know.

But one thing was certain: playing two good rounds 43 days apart, on two different courses, presented a challenge nobody anticipated. The Championship Could Wait. The Golf Couldn't. While the championship remained unfinished, the Ball Strikers weren't about to let six weeks go by without a little golf, camaraderie, and adventure.

Two separate groups headed south to the Rehoboth Beach region for postseason golf weekends. One encountered a nor'easter. The other found a little more cooperation from Mother Nature.

September 25–27: Seven Ball Strikers, One Guest, and One Nor'easter

Seven NJ Ball Strikers, joined by CJ Prettyman, a friend of Anthony Darby, headed to Delaware for what promised to be a memorable three-day golf getaway. The eight golfers opened their weekend at Baywood Greens in Long Neck, Delaware, on Friday, September 25. Under overcast skies, the group got its round underway before deteriorating weather brought play to an abrupt end.

And that was only the beginning.

The region's first nor'easter of the season rolled in, washing out Saturday's planned doubleheader at Bear Trap Dunes and Sunday's scheduled round at Heritage Shores on the journey home.

Three days of golf had quickly become a lesson in the fine print of Mother Nature's cancellation policy. Still, seven Ball Strikers and their guest made the trip, shared the experience, and returned home with another golf story to tell—even if the weather claimed most of the scorecards.

October 15–18: Jazz, Golf and a Second Shot at Delaware

Three weeks later, another group of eight Ball Strikers ventured to the Rehoboth Beach area, this time during the region's annual jazz festival. With music filling the weekend calendar, golf remained very much on the agenda. Six golfers traveled to Lighthouse Sound in Ocean City, Maryland, before taking on Heritage Shores during the return journey home. Meanwhile, two other Ball Strikers stayed closer to Rehoboth Beach, taking their talents to The Rookery. Different courses, different itineraries, but the same familiar combination of golf, friendship, and a little time away from the everyday routine.

Across the two weekends, the trips accounted for 16 golfer-trips, including one guest appearance, during the championship's extended intermission. One group battled a nor'easter. The other mixed fairways with a jazz festival. And through it all, the championship leaderboard remained unchanged. Eventually, the road trips ended, the golf bags returned home, and attention shifted back to the unfinished business waiting at High Bridge Hills. The vacation rounds were over. It was time to settle the score.

Tony Jenkins: A Championship Redeemed

Tony Jenkins entered the final round holding a one-shot Gross Championship lead over defending champion Perry Medina. His opening 82 at Neshanic featured a brilliant back-nine 37, turning a three-shot deficit at the turn into a one-shot advantage. Medina was close behind at 83. Keith Davenport and Anthony Darby were within striking distance at 88, while DeLano Bonner and Maurice Brown opened with 92s.

After six weeks away from championship competition, could Jenkins maintain his form? His answer? Another 82.

Jenkins matched his opening-round score and finished at 164, ten shots clear of the field.

2026 Gross Club Championship — Final Leaders

Finish	Golfer	Round 1/2/Total
Champion	Tony Jenkins	82/82/164
T2	Perry Medina	83/ 91/174
T2	DeLano Bonner	92/82/174
4	Keith Davenport	88/88/176
5	Anthony Darby	88/91/179
6	Maurice Brown	92/88/180
7	Hugh Lecky	96/86/182
T8	Michael Conrad	94/90/184
T8	Greg Cavanaugh	95/89/184

Bonner made the biggest move among the leading contenders, improving ten strokes to shoot 82 and tie Medina for second. Davenport demonstrated remarkable consistency with matching 88s. Darby, who began the day six shots behind Jenkins, encountered trouble immediately with an opening-hole nine before recovering to finish with a 91.

For Jenkins, the victory carried extra significance. After being disqualified from the 2025 Club Championship, he returned in 2026 and let his clubs do the talking. Two rounds. Two 82s. A ten-shot victory. From last year's disappointment to this year's champion. That's how you settle the score.

Hugh Lecky: The Closing-Round Charge

While Jenkins controlled the Gross Championship, Hugh Lecky's path to the Net Championship required a considerably stronger finish. Lecky opened at Neshanic with a net 79, ten shots behind first-round leader Burnell Williams, whose impressive net 69 established the early pace. When competition resumed, Lecky delivered the lowest net round of the final day: 70. His gross 86 represented a ten-stroke improvement over his opening-round 96, bringing his combined net total to 149.

2026 Net Club Championship — Final Leaders

Finish	Golfer	Net Round 1/2/Total
Champion	Hugh Lecky	79/70/149
2	Zack Yamba	80/71/151
3	Michael Conrad	78/75/153
4	Maurice Brown	78/76/154
T5	Anthony Darby	75/80/155
T5	Keith Davenport	77/78/155
7	Errol Blake	75/82/157

Jenkins also finished with a combined net 149. However, NJ Ball Strikers rules prohibit the Gross Champion from also claiming the Net Championship.

With Jenkins securing the Gross title, Lecky earned the Net Championship. Williams, the opening-round leader, did not post a final-round score and therefore did not complete the 36-hole competition. Lecky took full advantage of the opportunity. From an opening net 79 to a closing 70, Hugh Lecky delivered when it mattered most.

Zack Yamba: Fourth Place to Shippen Cup Champion

The season-long Shippen Cup race entered its final round with four golfers separated by fewer than eight points. Burnell Williams led with 279 points, followed by Raymond Woolfolk at 273.50, Michael Conrad at 271.67, and Zack Yamba at 271.25. Just 7.75 points separated first from fourth. Yamba needed a strong finish. He delivered a gross 85, net 71, and earned 60 Shippen Cup points, lifting his final total to 331.25. Fourth place became first.

2026 Shippen Cup — Final Top 10

Rank	Golfer	Final Points
1	Zack Yamba	331.25
2	Michael Conrad	311.67
3	Hugh Lecky	300.42
4	Raymond Woolfolk	283.50
5	Burnell Williams	279.00
6	Greg Cavanaugh	265.00
7	Greg Ward	255.00
8	Anthony Darby	234.00
9	Joe McLaughlin	232.50
10	Tony Jenkins	202.41

Yamba finished 19.58 points ahead of Conrad, who claimed second place. Lecky made an impressive move of his own, earning a final-round-high 80 Shippen Cup points to climb from eighth to third. Woolfolk finished fourth, while Williams, who did not record a final-round score, finished fifth. Joe McLaughlin also gained ground, collecting 40 points to finish ninth.

But the season-long prize belonged to Yamba. When the Shippen Cup was on the line, Zack Yamba produced the round he needed.

Three Flights, Three Winners: Sifford, Peete and Elder

Beyond the overall championships, the final round featured competitive battles across all three flights. With Gross Club Champion Tony Jenkins ineligible for flight placement, the Sifford Flight standings were adjusted accordingly.

Sifford Flight — Bonner Makes His Move

DeLano Bonner captured the Sifford Flight with a net 74, posting matching 41s for a gross 82. His round tied Jenkins for the lowest gross score of the day and helped secure a share of second place in the overall Gross Championship.

Terrell Carothers claimed second place with a net 75, finishing just one stroke behind Bonner. Maurice Brown secured third with a net 76, completing a tightly contested flight in which only two strokes separated the top three finishers.

A ten-shot improvement from Round One, a flight victory, and a runner-up finish in the Gross Championship made Bonner one of the day's standout performers.

Peete Flight — Yamba Doubles Down

Zack Yamba added the Peete Flight victory to his Shippen Cup triumph with a net 71. Keith Kirkland finished second at net 72, while Bruce Arthur secured third at net 73. Only two strokes separated the top three, but Yamba's performance gave him two reasons to celebrate.

Elder Flight — Conrad pulls it off

Mike Conrad was tied for second place after round 1, 3 strokes behind the leader, Errol Blake. After 43 days to think about how to win Elder flight, Conrad shot net 75 at High Bridge to edge out Maurice Brown by one stroke. Joe McLaughlin, who shot the low second round score for the flight, placed third.

Final-Round Flight Results — Adjusted Standings

Flight	1st Place	2nd Place	3rd Place
Sifford	Bonner	Carothers	Brown
Peete	Yamba	Kirkland	Arthur
Elder	Conrad	Brown	McLaughlin

Tony Jenkins and Hugh Lecky remain part of his final-round scoring record, but as Gross & Net Club Champion respectively, they are excluded from flight placement.

High Bridge Hills: One Last Test

Twenty-three golfers posted final-round scores at High Bridge Hills. The change from September sunshine to late-October golf brought a different atmosphere and a final opportunity to make a move. Jenkins and Bonner shared the day's lowest gross score at 82. Yamba followed at 85, with Lecky at 86. Some golfers found another gear. Others struggled to recapture their opening-round form. And a few probably wondered whether they should have left the clubs in the garage until spring. That's golf. And that's the Ball Strikers.

The Final Word: Worth the Wait

The 2026 Club Championship delivered three very different stories. Tony Jenkins returned from last year's disappointment to claim the Gross Championship with two remarkably consistent rounds. Hugh Lecky produced the closing-round performance needed to capture the Net Championship. Zack Yamba turned a fourth-place Shippen Cup position into a season-long championship.

Along the way, two groups of golfers made the most of the championship delay with getaways to the Delaware coast, reminding us that the season is about more than what appears on the leaderboard. Congratulations also to our final-round flight winners: DeLano Bonner (Sifford), Zack Yamba (Peete), and Mike Conrad (Elder).

To every Ball Striker who competed, qualified, traveled, and contributed to another memorable season: well played. The championship may have taken 43 days to finish, but the results are now official. The scores are settled. The champions are crowned. And the bragging rights? Those last all offseason.

Until we tee it up again.
