Knight & Woolfolk top Strikers at Shawnee

Eighteen Ball Strikers (and one guest) made the trek up route 80 to the Shawnee Golf Resort to compete for Shippén Cup points. Rain threatened, but never materialized, creating overcast skies that shielded us from the oppressive sun. Add a little breeze and you have a great day for golf. The format for the event was individual match play and stroke play against the field.

Nobody is ready to concede this season's Shippén Cup championship to Darryl Jeffries, arguably the hottest Ball Striker over the last few months. Certainly not Mel Knight or Ray Woolfolk, who both bested Jeffries in Shippén Cup stroke play at Shawnee. Knight and Woolfolk tied for 1st place in stroke play and won their Shippén Cup matches, moving them up into a tie for second place in overall Shippén Cup competition.

Darryl Jeffries says "Catch me if you can". He remained the overall Shippén Cup leader on the strength of a 3rd place finish in stroke play and a match play victory at Mel Knight (left) and Ray Woolfolk tie for second in overall Shipen Cup with strong play at Shawnee Shawnee. Curtis Atkinson finished 4th in stroke play with Mike Conrad, Cal Beatty, Earl Fraser, Mel LuSane, Cleve Eatman and Harold Gibson finishing in a tie for 5th place.

Other match play winners at Shawnee included Cal Beatty, Mel LuSane, Earl Fraser, Cleve Eatman, Havel Wright and Harold Gibson. A very competitive match between Tom Culp and Mike Conrad ended in a tie.

Top grossers at Shawnee were Mel Knight (82), Curtis Atkinson (84), Darryl Jeffries (86) and Ray Woolfolk (87).
